ORDER:

In the reference read above, the Director of Insurance Medical Services, A.P., Hyderabad has submitted that the Government have issued orders to fill-up 100 vacancies of Civil Assistant Surgeons with retired Medical Officers on contract basis vide G.O.Ms.No.42, LET&F(IMS) Dept. dated 16.05.2006. Presently (85) retired Medical Officers are working in IMS Department in various ESI Institutions, with consolidated payment @100% gross salary attached to the post of Civil Assistant Surgeon as on date of appointment in the revised scales of Pay, 2005. He has stated that certain important problems arose with retired contract doctors. The Director of Insurance Medical Services has submitted that the Insurance Medical Services department is facing the above problems in over all ESI Institutions in the State.

2. Further, he has stated that the Government have upgraded the ESI Hospital, Sanathnagar from 310 beds to 500 beds along with sanctioning of additional staff and among of these posts Government have created 100 additional posts of Civil Assistant Surgeons in G.O..Ms.No.92, Fin (SMPC) Dept., dated:01.04.2010. The ESI Hospital at Triurpati and Ramachandrapuram, are under consideration for up-gradation to 100 beds and additional posts will also be sanctioned As on date the vacancies of Civil Assistant Surgeons are 296. The A.P.P.S.C has conducted 'viva-voce' for selection of (58) candidates from 22.02.2010 to 26.10.2010 vide notification No.22/2008 and A.P.P.S.C. allots (58) candidates, there are still (238) vacancies are yet to be filled-up. Recently, the Medical & Health Department has also issued notification for recruitment of Medical Officers on contract basis for fresh medical graduates.

3. The method of appointment to the post of Civil Assistant Surgeon is by direct recruitment and these posts are under the purview of the AP Public Service Commission. The APPSC is taking long time for selection and allotment of candidates which is a prolonged process. Meanwhile, the medical care to the Insured Persons covered under ESI Act is being affected badly, due to shortage of doctors. These doctors will be posted against the vacant posts of Civil Assistant Surgeons and their services will be terminated as and when regular appointments are made.

4. The Director of Insurance Medical Services, A.P., Hyderabad has requested the Government to issue permission to recruit (238) fresh doctors temporarily on contract basis by conducting walk-in interview for one year period and fix the amount in lumpsum as remuneration to appoint doctors, instead of retired doctors.

5. Government, after careful consideration of the above proposal, hereby permit the Director of Insurance Medical Services, A.P., Hyderabad to recruit (238) vacancies of Medical Officers by fresh doctors temporarily on contract basis by conducting walk-in interview for one year period or till the regular medical officers are appointed by the AP Public Service Commission, whichever is earlier, and the remuneration to be fixed as lumpsum @100% gross salary attached to the post of Civil Assistant Surgeon as on date, instead of taking retired doctors.
